

After I purchase a license, do I need to reinstall the software?

There is no need to reinstall the application after the purchase of a commercial license for the on-premise/server version of the WebSpellChecker application. In order to upgrade the license from trial to permanent, you have to reactivate the license to apply for an extended period of software validity.